Elettra Gallone is an Italian film director from Milan, Italy. She works as producer, freelance filmmaker, camera operator and photographer. She transposed her interest in people, society and cultures with documentary filmmaking. She worked as official photographer and filmmaker for Emergenza Sorrisi during the surgical missions in Benin in 2015 and in Iraq in 2017. During the first mission she filmed the short film "Il tempo di uno Sguardo". In October 2021 she participated at the 2nd Film Accelerator with Werner Herzog in Lanzarote realizing two short films, "La Ira de Guayota" and "Poseidón". Her first feature film Incontrando Samir la Sera has been selected to be part of Vision du Reel 2022 Film Market and premiered in Milan at the International Film festival and at the Ischia Film Festival 2023. In 2024, she founded the Emerald Mountain Films srl, a film production company specializing in documentary filmmaking. She has just finished her latest feature documentary film: Courma et Courmayeur.
